

When you have critical decisions to make, DVI Aviation can help you gain the focus you need in all facets of the aviation industry. Our staff is a world-class team of aviation experts that brings practical and easily understood solutions to seemingly complex technical issues. Our goal is to improve aviation safety and offer premier technical consulting services.

Mr. David Glass, Global Operations - Prior to this position at DVI Aviation, David D. Glass had been Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Veeco, Inc. since January 2010. Veeco is a $1+bn world-leading manufacturer of semiconductor equipment for LED, Data Storage and MBE applications. Prior to joining Veeco, Mr. Glass served in various senior executive positions with Rohm and Haas Company, a $10 billion global specialty materials company that was acquired in 2009 by The Dow Chemical Company.

Mr. Glass served there as both CFO of Rohm and Haas' $2 billion Electronic Materials division and CFO of the Rohm and Haas Asia-Pacific region. From 2003-2007, Mr. Glass served as Rohm and Haas' Corporate Controller, based in Philadelphia, PA, where he led a 350-person staff and was responsible for company-wide accounting, financial controls and SEC reporting.

Previously, he was posted in China, initially as Finance Director of APAC and then as General Manager of Rohm and Haas' Coatings business for Greater China, where he oversaw manufacturing, technical support, sales and marketing teams. Prior to that, he was based in Montgomeryville, PA as President of Toso-Haas Biotech, a stand-alone joint venture between Rohm and Haas and Tosoh of Japan.

Mr. Glass' prior roles included a five-year UK-based assignment, first as Finance Director for Europe, and then later as Director, European Emerging Markets Business Development. He has been involved in over a dozen M&A transactions for Rohm and Haas.

Mr. Glass holds a Masters Degree in Finance, Economics and International Business from Northwestern University, a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Accounting from Lewis University, and passed the CPA exam in 1981.

In addition to his role at DVI, Mr. Glass is President of JIE International, a global consulting firm, and maintains a seat on the Board of Encyt Corp, an early development stage Biotech company.
